

Co-curricular and Extra –curricular Activities committee

Extra-curricular activities are those, sometimes optional, out-of-the-classroom activities that are not tied to the curriculum. 'Co-curricular' activities are those activities that are beyond, but complement the regular curriculum and form part of a coordinated approach to an all-round education.

Objectives:

- Improved Academic Performance. ...
- Explore Interests and Create Broader Perspectives. ...
- Higher Self-esteem. ...
- Social Opportunities. ...
- Productive Breaks. ...
- Essential Life Skills. ...
- Resumes. ...
- University Applications.

Functions:

- Academic Activities: Examples include quiz bowl, debate, model United Nations, pre-college programs, study abroad programs and mock trial. These activities demonstrate a commitment to lifelong learning beyond the classroom and an interest in furthering your education. Colleges love to see academic activities on applications.
- Community Activities: This activity includes service or volunteering with local organizations. Possible groups include Habitat for Humanity, Room in the Inn, food banks, and family shelters. Colleges value these activities because they show you care about other people and will likely contribute to the campus community.
- Personality Activities: Personality activities emphasize to colleges who you are beyond your grades, test scores, and application. They make you a unique person who jumps off the page. Examples include sports and scouting.
