WOMENS DAY CELEBRATIONS

KITS celebrated proudly the “International Women’s day” at C-Block seminar Hall on 8th march 2023. It celebrates the unique strength of women that is hard to find in the rest of human existence. It started with prayer song by the girl students. Initiating the event, the Coordinator of WE Cell, Dr.V.NeelaPriya informed the gathering that International Women’s Day is a global day and is celebrated in most parts of the world to take Cognizance of the unprecedented achievements of women, irrespective of which section o the society they belong to. She Expressed satisfaction that the college had close to 40% of women Students and that the women faculty were very active on administration front in addition to academics.

Chief Guest, Ms. Deepika, SI has advised students not to blindly ape the western culture but draw strength from their own culture. Those who are rooted in their culture will be more confident and happy in the modern stress ridden world. She added that the answer is nor for men and women to try to be alike. All men and women must be themselves, realizing that God has given each of us unique abilities with which to pursue our goals, and that our primary responsibility is to take full advantage of those abilities. She reminded that man and woman should play complementary roles without competing with each other. Women have greater empathy. Men are physically more robust and usually more aggressive and externally oriented. “Let’s celebrate the incredible strength of women to strengthen the foundation of the society,” she concluded.

The speeches by the guests were followed by prize distribution to the winners of various competitions in the sports, cultural and creative categories. The WE Cell also gave away women’s day token gifts to the sub-staff , cleaning staff of KITS in appreciation with felicitation of the guests and vote of Thanks.

SANKRANTHI CELEBRATIONS

Pongal is the only festival of Hindu that follows a solar calendar and is celebrated on the fourteenth of January every year. Pongal has astronomical significance: it marks the beginning of Uttarayana, the Sun's movement northward for a six month period. In Hinduism, Uttarayana is considered auspicious, as opposed to Dakshinayana, or the southern movement of the sun. All important events are scheduled during this period. Makara Sankranti refers to the event of the Sun entering the zodiac sign of Makara or Capricorn. The college conducts many cultural programs on this occasion like, rangoli, ethnic wear, mehendi etc. The best talents are duly recognized and honored.

Every year, KITS celebrates Sankranti Sambaralu within the campus. The students and faculty members celebrated the festival with gaiety and grandeur. It was a great celebration and it brought the students together to celebrate the festival together. The celebration in KITS has been going on for years with the support of the esteemed principal and the enthusiastic faculty members, and non-teaching staff backed by a strong student council every year.
